

Office No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, September 17.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Lucile Whatley of the Falfa section is visiting at the home of her uncle, Hon. J. Wm. Thurmond.

Miss Ollie Byrd has resumed her duties again as saleslady at the Mukashy Bargain House.

Miss Sophie Wolf, of Johnston, was the guest of Mrs. Mukashy last week.

Miss Elizabeth Givens, of Pittsburg, Pa., will arrive today to be the guest of Mrs. Hugh Nicholson.

Fresh pigs' feet.

L. T. May.

Mrs. J. U. Rives has returned home after spending the summer at Cedar Mountain, N. C.

Mrs. Charles Brady of Columbia is the guest of her niece, Mrs. J. S. Byrd.

Little Misses Lucy and Hammie Scurry spent a few days last week with their aunt, Miss Ella Scurry.

Miss Marion Blalock left yesterday to enter upon her duties as teacher of a private school at Whitmire.

Mr. Sam Marx, of New York has come to Edgefield to spend some time with his sister, Mrs. Mukashy.

Mr. O. L. Dobson came up from Augusta and spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. Emma N. Dobson.

Mr. W. R. Dobson, accompanied by his family, came up from Beech Island in his automobile and spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson.

Mrs. G. C. Mayson of the Callison section is visiting her sister, Miss Fannie Sullivan, at the old home in the Horn's Creek community.

Everything to eat at
L. T. May's.

The Advertiser is pleased to learn Parkville is soon to have a modernly equipped lumber mill. It will benefit not only Parkville but the entire western portion of the county.

Mr. Dan Walker, wife, and two daughters, Misses Mildred and Ojey Walker, who have been spending some time here with Mr. J. C. Walker and family, have returned to their home in Savannah.

Dr. J. S. Byrd is having some improvements made in his office. When completed he will have one of the most attractive and one of the best equipped dental offices in this part of the state.

Miss Ina Hill wishes to inform her friends through The Advertiser that she now has sewing rooms in the Addison building near the Baptist church, having moved from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bettis Cantelou on Main street.

Mr. Ben Rubenstein left Monday to spend a week in New York. While in the metropolis which is one of the leading markets of the world he will purchase many new things in fall merchandise for the two Rubenstein stores in Edgefield. In a few days this stylish merchandise will be arriving by freight and express.

Misses Grace and Alma Williams, daughters of our esteemed friend, Mr. C. M. Williams of Cleora, passed through Edgefield Saturday while en route to accept schools in Aiken county. Both of these popular young ladies have been engaged to teach schools that run for eight months.

In order to supply the farmers of this section with vetch, rye and the clovers for winter cover crops, W. W. Adams & Co. have made large purchases from the leading and most reliable seed house in the country and can fill orders in any quantity. Read their advertisement this week in which they tell farmers about the cover crop seed.

Mrs. Hattie Lanham returned last night from Medina, Ohio, where she has been spending the past eight months with her son, Mr. T. B. Lanham. She was accompanied as far as Greenville by Miss Ethel Lanham, who returned to the G. F. C. to resume her course in kindergarten. Mr. W. H. Dorn went over to Columbia yesterday to meet Mrs. Lanham.

Miss Mary Thompson of Rock Hill is here visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. C. Tompkins.

After a month's vacation Miss Mattie Kemp is again at her post of duty in the Rubenstein store.

The ladies who compose the cemetery association will serve dinner again at the county fair. A fuller notice will be given later.

Mrs. Mamie Tillman attended the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Aiken association Tuesday.

Seed rye, seed barley, seed oats, seed wheat, vetch.

L. T. May.

Mr. J. R. Cantelou is receiving more orders for fine stock than he can fill. His fame as a breeder of fine Berkshires and cows has gone abroad.

Mr. J. L. Ouzts of Kirksey has just completed his new fireproof building and is now installing his new machinery, which will be ready for operation in a few days.

The Corner Store will hold its fall millinery opening next Tuesday and Wednesday. See Mr. Turner's announcement in his millinery advertisement on our 8th page.

Don't fail to get my price on flour. I have price and quality.

L. T. May.

The ginners' report sent The Advertiser from the census department shows that up to the first of September there were 40 bales of cotton ginned in Edgefield county against three bales for the same time last year.

Miss Mabel Prescott is up from Augusta spending her vacation of two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Prescott. Miss Mabel is at the Augusta hospital preparing herself to be a trained nurse. She has been cordially welcomed by her Edgefield friends.

All gin owners should see that their press is standard size, 27x54 inches. All cotton buyers are forced to deduct $1 per bale on cotton packed in larger presses. Edgefield buyers only make deduction where bales are larger than the standard size. Exporters and commission men require them to do this.

Ice tea glasses at 50c per set.
Penn & Holstein.

Mr. P. N. Lott, the county demonstration agent, will attend the opening of the Edgefield High School next Monday, September 22, and will lay before the trustees and patrons the plan of the three years rotation such as he is teaching the farmers of the county. We trust that a large number of the patrons will be present to hear Mr. Lott.

Wesley Classes of Edgefield Methodist Church.

The men's class is enthusiastically planning for the Sunday school year beginning October 1. Officers have been elected as follows: President, S. B. Nicholson; vice-president, G. C. Johnson; secretary, R. H. Nicholson; treasurer, J. D. May; teacher, B. E. Nicholson; chairman devotional committee, J. T. McManis; chairman social committee, Roy Armfield; chairman membership committee, C. I. Gay.

The young ladies' class will soon elect officers for ensuing year.

J. R. Walker.

Appreciated and Honored in his Adopted Home.

The friends of Mr. T. C. Callison have announced him as a candidate for Mayor in the November election, as will be seen by reference to the announcement elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Callison is a popular young attorney, being the junior member of the law firm of Messrs. Thurmond, Timmerman & Callison. He is a young man of rare ability, and besides, his character is irrepachable. Since coming to Lexington he has won the confidence and esteem of the entire public and he numbers his friends by the score.

It is not known whether he will permit his name to be used or not, but should he be elected there is no doubt but that he would make a good, live, progressive mayor.—Lexington Enterprise.

New Goods Arriving.

Messrs. Rives Bros have purchased a very large stock of fall merchandise. A portion of it has already arrived and the express and freight each day bring additional shipments. Watch for their big advertisement next week.—Adv.

Nothing better for indigestion or biliousness. Price 50c and $1.00 at Penn & Holstein's, W E Lynch & Co.

Don't Let Baby Suffer With Eczema and Skin Eruptions.

Babies need a perfect skin-covering. Skin eruptions cause them not only intense suffering, but hinder their growth. Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment can be relied on for relief and permanent cure of suffering babies whose skin eruptions have made their life miserable. "Our baby was afflicted with breaking out of the skin all over the face and scalp. Doctors and skin specialists failed to help. We tried Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment and were overjoyed to see baby completely cured before one box was used" writes Mrs. Strubler, Dubuque, Iowa. All druggists or by mail, 50c. Paint.

Every gallon costs a painter's day's work.

Poor paint, more gallons, good paint, less gallons.

Every extra gallon adds to your job its price and the painter's day's work: not far from $9 a gallon.

There are a dozen good paints and hundreds of poor ones. Devotee is one of the dozen. The chances are: there isn't another in this town. Devotee.
